

Kishwer Khan

My name is Kishwer Khan. I am an Ofsted registered childminder since 2006. I am a qualified BTEC and NVQ level 3 childcare practitioner and achieved my qualification in Children's Care Learning and Development in 2009. Since becoming a childminder, I have done various courses in childcare. I have also done food hygiene, health and safety, child protection, safeguarding children and paediatric first aid training and refresh my training every three years.

Name of setting: Active-kids childcare.

My service provision is mainly home based childcare. I offer Part time/full time places, homemade meals and snacks during the hours of childminding. I also provide School drop off and pickups, Visits to park, libraries and educational trips to museums etc.
